NolaPro

Redistribution Policy

In order to better assist with the redistribution of NolaPro, please follow the guidelines set forth below. If you have questions, please contact us at partners@noguska.com.

Commercial and non-commercial use restrictions:

- NolaPro may be freely distributed in your home country

- NolaPro may be freely distributed to a foreign country as long as such foreign country relies on English as its primary language

- NolaPro may be distributed by a business to a foreign country where English is not the primary language only for subsidiary location(s) which fall under the company's corporate umbrella

- NolaPro may not be distributed for any fee(s) unless prior consent is provided directly from Noguska LLC (see Commercial use below)

Additional commercial use restrictions:

- NolaPro may not be bundled nor distributed in any way, neither free nor paid with another commercial software application without prior consent provided directly from Noguska LLC

Commercial use guidelines:

- NolaPro may be only distributed with commercial software in exchange for 10% of the advertised price per unit/subscriber

- NolaPro may only be hosted and relicensed as a "client service" in exchange for a licensing fee of 10% of the price per subscriber

- NolaPro may be "branded" with logos/login for an additional $99 in conjunction with the commercial use agreement ($299 separately)

- Distributors retain 100% of most other value-added services (support, training, auditing, etc.) directly provided to clients

- Noguska LLC will remit 10% commission to distributor for any customization revenue referred directly from distributor

- API is available to seamlessly integrate 3rd party applications (ASP, VB, C++, PHP, etc.) into NolaPro with output returned in generic .xml format — inquire for more details
